DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
  - I. Claims 1-7, drawn to a surface treating agent, classified in class 106, subclass 13.
  - II. Claims 8-13 and 15, drawn to a coated resin sheet classified in class 428, subclass 327.
  - III. Claims 14 and 15, drawn to a process of coating, classified in class 427, subclass 212.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Inventions I and II are related as mutually exclusive species in an intermediate-final product relationship. Distinctness is proven for claims in this relationship if the intermediate product is useful to make other than the final product (MPEP § 806.04(b), 3rd paragraph), and the species are patentably distinct (MPEP § 806.04(h)). In the instant case, the intermediate product is deemed to be useful as sealing composition, and the inventions are deemed patentably distinct since there is nothing on this record to show them to be obvious variants. Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions anticipated by the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

3. Inventions I and III are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01). In the instant case the different inventions are unrelated because they have different modes of operation. The particles of invention I can be used as sealing composition while the process of invention II forms a coated sheet and the coating process step in invention II is not usable in forming the particles of invention I.

4. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

5. During a telephone conversation with Applicant's Representative, Mr. Raymond Stewart on June 15, 2005, a provisional election was made with traverse to prosecute the invention of group I, claims 1-7. Affirmation of this election must be made by applicant in replying to this Office action. Claims 8-16 are withdrawn from further consideration by the examiner, 37 CFR 1.142(b), as being drawn to a non-elected invention.

6. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

7. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

8. Claims 1-7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over the Atsushi patent (JP 05-287097) in view of Hiroyuki patent (JP 2000-282043).*

Claim 1: The Atsushi patent teaches an antifog composition comprising a polyhydric alcohol fatty acid ester, a non-ether hydrophilic polymer excluding polyvinyl alcohol, and a silicone oil. See abstract and claims. The Hiroyuki patent teaches a release agent containing ether polymer comprising an oxyethylene unit in an antifog composition. See abstract and claims. Therefore, it would have been obvious for one having ordinary skill in the art to incorporate the release agent taught by Hiroyuki in the composition taught by Atsushi in order to prevent sticking during processing or improve storage capacity of the composition.

Claims 2-3: See the Atsushi patent (translation copy, page 3, paragraphs 0028 to 0035).

Claim 4: See the Hiroyuki patent (translation copy, claims).

Claim 5: See Atsushi, translation copy, page 3, paragraph 0025.

Claim 6: See Atsushi, translation copy, page 4, paragraphs 0043 to 0045.

Claims 7: See rejections to claims 1-6.

9. References not relied upon are cited as art of interest.
